2023 ELECTION OF RDA (NSW) DIRECTORS FOR THE PERIOD AGM 2023 to AGM 2025

CANDIDATE PROFILE INFORMATION

Many of the Centres voting may not be familiar with the candidate(s) being nominated. In no more than 250 words the candidate should complete this Profile and describe themselves to assist Centres in their voting. This information should include such things as background in RDA (NSW), the skills and attributes which that can be brought to the Board and the reasoning that the candidate wishes to be a Director of RDA (NSW). Please email a passport size photo.

Been a member of Coonabarabran Centre for 4 years 3 of which I was either Vice President or President, Assistant Coach, Grants Officer, OH&S Officer. I have been Regional Rep for the Northwest for 2 years I'm currently coaching at Narrabri.
I joined RDA after hearing an appeal on local radio for volunteers, having run my own trailriding business and breeding/racing thoroughbreds. Although having nothing to do with disabled people was my biggest concern but I took to the clients like a duck to water.
My leadership style is inclusive and teamwork is paramount however I am dogged in my determination to see a proposal through to its end result. I can be quite blunt in conversation and the 20 second rule is sometimes not long enough if I'm deliberating an answer to a particular question.
I left school at 15 determined that one day I would own my own farm. I worked at Myers until I resigned at age 21 as the youngest Department Manager in that company. I then worked in various jobs mainly mechanics and metal attending TAFE Courses along the way until purchasing a property at Coonabarabran in 1970 then moving to our current property in 1976, this is where Sandi and I reside.
I have certificates in Biological Agronomy and also run a farm goods supply and consultation business from the farm premises.

I want to bring RDA NSW to the forefront of equine assisted disabled agencies and be more accessible to centres.

In addition to the candidate supplying the above, the candidate is also to supply below a list of all Centres with which they are associated.

For the purposes of nomination to the Board, a candidate is considered to be an associate of each Centre of which they are either a financial member or a volunteer. This information does not form part of the 250 words relating to the Candidate Profile Information.

Centre Membership: Manning Great Lakes and Narrabri
Centre Volunteering: Narrabri
